Alaska Works Partnership

Spring is around the corner, which means it is time to gear up for the busy construction season! Alaska Works Partnership is offering free training programs designed to help individuals gain the skills they need to start or advance in a construction career.

- Hands-on training in carpentry, electrical, welding, and more
- Perfect for beginners and those looking to upskill
- Step toward apprenticeships and full-time careers

Visit alaskaworks.org to learn more!

Exciting News: Alaska Works Partnership has been awarded a Gable Grant from the Lowe's Foundation! The grant will allow AWP to expand free, hands-on construction training programs in Anchorage, Fairbanks, and the Mat-Su region. Congratulations!

Alaska Construction Career Day

The Alaska DOT&PF Civil Rights Office is hosting the Alaska Construction Career Day on May 8, 2025 at the Alaska State Fairgrounds. This event is designed for high school students interested in exploring careers in the construction and transportation industries.

Students will be:

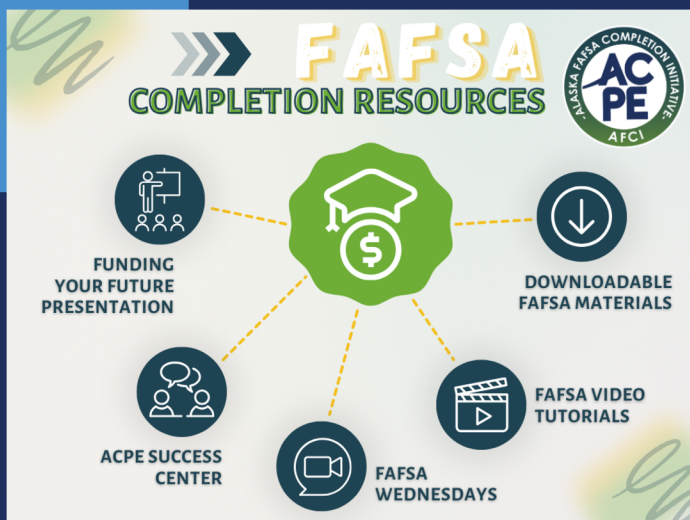

- engaging in hands-on building activities
- meeting industry professionals and construction trades apprentices
- getting an opportunity to see heavy machinery up-close
- learning about career pathways, apprenticeships, and postsecondary training options
