WeBuildAlaska Campaign

WeBuildAlaska is a collaborative campaign made possible by Associated General Contractors of Alaska (AGC) and the Construction Industry Progress Fund (CIPF).

WeBuildAlaska is an initiative that aims to motivate and engage the next generation of Alaska's construction workers. It seeks to eliminate false beliefs and make people, especially the younger generation and their mentors, more aware of the career possibilities in the construction industry, as well as provide access to local training programs, resources and information.

The construction industry offers boundless possibilities for employment, a rapid trajectory of career progression, extraordinary earning potential and on-the-job training. Moreover, due to the implementation of revolutionary and cutting-edge construction technologies, jobs in the sector are more secure and stimulating than ever before!

RAHI - Rural Alaska Honors Institute

Established at the request of the Alaska Federation of Natives, RAHI has been preparing rural and Alaska Native high school students for academic excellence and college success since 1983.

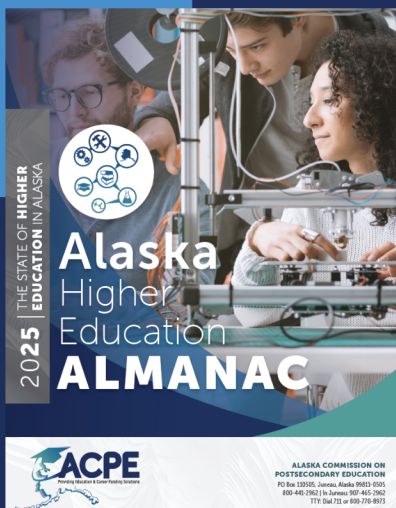

RAHI's mission is to empower rural and Alaska Native students to achieve their dreams through higher education. At RAHI, students take up to 10 college credits in six weeks and learn how to thrive academically by experiencing life on campus, enhancing self-confidence and discipline, and developing a state-wide community to carry with them throughout their lives. RAHI is offered at no cost to students.

Alaska Higher Education Almanac

The Alaska Higher Education Almanac prepared by ACPE offers Alaska's higher education and workforce development stakeholders and policy-makers relevant content and data to use as a resource to develop and guide educational and workforce pathways.

The Almanac presents a comprehensive picture of postsecondary education in Alaska. Key aggregated data pertaining to Alaska's postsecondary institutions, financial aid programs, educational attainment, and workforce needs are gathered from reputable state and national sources, and presented in an easy-to-read format.
